

Name:

Eric M Sizemore

Job Title:

Correctional Captain

Agency (Cabinet/Department):

Justice Cabinet / Department of Corrections

Education:

Bryan Station Senior High School, Lexington, KY / Limited College (Saint Leo University, satellite Fort Stewart, GA)

Work Experience:

Honorably served in the United States Army at Fort Knox, Kentucky and Fort Stewart, Georgia / Worked in the Department of Corrections as an Officer, Sergeant, Lieutenant and now a Captain.

Why I am a candidate for the Personnel Board:

I want to represent us, the common worker for the State of Kentucky.

Additional Comments:

Some of my characteristics include dependability, trust, integrity, confidence, loyalty and honesty to name a few. I have tried to install some of those same things in the people I work with and explain the value of each.

I have been recognized for my years of service to the Department of Corrections and the State. I have had numerous officer and supervisor of the month and quarter awards, employee of the year in 2005 for Blackburn Correctional Complex and being honored with the 2013 Commissioner's Award for the Kentucky Department of Corrections.

I am a member of the Fraternal Order of Police, an active member of the Kentucky Colonels, Kentucky Council of Crime and Delinquency, The Correctional Peace Officers Foundation and an active contributor to the Kentucky Employees Charitable Campaign.

All of the things I briefly speak about above tell some of who I am as a person, employee and friend. I take great pride in what I do and I have always tried to do my best, be self-motivated and someone that can be called upon to get the job done. I am confident that my supervisors and the supervisors I have had under my supervision could give not only my work ethic but my character a good reference.

Thank you for this potential opportunity to serve on the Personnel Board.
